

Ranching for Profit Workshop with Dallas Mount

Friday, June 24th | 9:00am - 3:30pm
$20 | Pre-Registration Required

This one day workshop will explore how good grazing management is key to improving profit in the ranching business. Learn how to improve land and create a profitable business that can stay in the family for generations.

Schedule

- 8:30 am Check-in, coffee, and refreshments
- 9:00 am Classroom lesson & discussion
- 12:00 pm Lunch provided
- 1:30 pm Ranch visit - applying best practices in the field (soft ending at 3:30 pm)

Workshop Topics

- ◇ Economics of grazing management
- ◇ Grazing principles and how to apply them
- ◇ Soil health for grass

Details

Location: Briggsdale School Cafetorium : 515 Leslie Street, Briggsdale, CO

RSVP by June 22 to: Ashley Mertz at the NRCS Office in Greeley, CO

Phone: (970) 534-2293 Email: Ashley.Mertz@usda.gov

Register online here or pay with cash (exact change only) or check (made out to Bird Conservancy of the Rockies). Pay in advance is highly encouraged.

Connecting People, Birds and Land

www.birdconservancy.org