

Ranching for Profit Workshop with Dallas Mount

June 23 | 9:00 am - 3:30 pm
$20 | Pre-Registration Required

This one day workshop will explore how good grazing management is key to improving profit in the ranching business. Learn how to improve land and create a profitable business that can stay in the family for generations.

Schedule

- 8:30 am Check-in, coffee, and refreshments
- 9:00 am Classroom lesson & discussion
- 12:00 pm Catered lunch
- 1:30 pm Ranch visit - applying best practices in the field (soft ending at 3:30 pm)

Workshop Topics

- ◇ Economics of grazing management
- ◇ Grazing principles and how to apply them
- ◇ Soil health for grass

Details

Location: Karval Community Building : 29085 County Rd S, Karval, CO

RSVP by June 21 to: Katie Merewether, at the Rocky Ford USDA-NRCS Office

Phone: 719-652-3016

Email: Katherine.Merewether@usda.gov

Register online at: https://campscui.active.com/orgs/

BirdConservancyoftheRockies?season=3166339&session=55718732

or pay with cash (exact change only) or check (made out to Bird Conservancy of the Rockies). Payment in advance highly encouraged.

NFWF

USDA

United States Department of Agriculture
Natural Resources Conservation Service

Connecting People, Birds and Land

www.birdconservancy.org